FOUR STATES BANDMASTERS CONVENTION & CLINIC
TO BE HELD AT TISD

Texarkana, TX – TISD will host the Four States Bandmasters Convention & Clinic on Thursday, January 13 thru Saturday, January 15. An expected 250 students and 100 directors representing 55 schools from the four states area will be in attendance. Additionally, representatives from over 40 vendors will be featured in the exhibit area. The event will culminate in a concert series to be held in the John Thomas Theatre of the Sullivan Performing Arts Center, 3941 Summerhill Road.

The Four States Bandmasters Convention & Clinic brings together the musical abilities of area students who have been nominated to the Four States Honor Band by area band directors. During the course of the convention, students audition for one of three bands: jazz, concert and symphonic. Following their concert assignment, students rehearse on a daily basis and present a series of concerts to the community which will be held on Saturday, January 15 at 2:00 p.m. at the Sullivan Performing Arts Center & John Thomas Theatre. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

Band conductors for the concert series are chosen by the Four States Bandmasters. This year's conductors will be: Gary Meggs, Director of Bands for University of Arkansas at Monticello (Four States Jazz Band), Phillip Clements, Director of Bands for Texas A&M University - Commerce (Four States Concert Band) and Stephen Melillo, Composer (Four States Symphonic Band).
