TISD TO HOLD CLASSES ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 21
AS BAD WEATHER MAKE-UP DAY

Texarkana, TX – Texarkana Independent School District will hold classes for all students on Monday, February 21 as one of two bad weather make-up days due to recent snow days taken. The additional day will be taken on Friday, May 20.

All students and staff will be required to attend and should report to their campus at the normal start of school hours. Texas Middle School and Texas High School students will report to class following their “A” day schedule.

In total, TISD students have missed four instructional days in the current school year due to weather. State policy allows for students to only be required to make up two of the lost instructional days.
