TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL AND TEXAS MIDDLE SCHOOL BAND STUDENTS EARN RECOGNITION DURING SUMMER BAND CAMPS

Texarkana, TX – Texas High School Senior Drum Major, Bass Deese, was awarded the Outstanding Camper Award during the Steven Moss Academy Drum Major Camp at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, AR. A total of fifty-six Drum Majors from the area participated in the annual camp. With his award, Deese earned a scholarship to next year's camp to be used by his successor.

Additionally, Deese was awarded the Outstanding Achievement Award for Drum Majors for the Fred J. Miller Auxiliary and Drum Major Camp at Henderson State University in Arkadelphia, AR.

Two Texas High School Band Students were awarded special recognition during the University of Arkansas at Monticello Senior High Band Camp.

Priscella Butler, THS Junior, was named Outstanding Female Jazz Musician and Bass Deese, THS Senior, was named as the Outstanding Male Musician for the First Band. Each received a full scholarship to next year's camp.

Texas Middle School Band Students earned recognition during the Henderson State University Junior Band Camp held in Arkadelphia, AR.

Drake Hudspeth was named Outstanding Male Musician for the Second Band while Raven Morriss received recognition as Outstanding Female Musician for the First Band.
