THS STUDENTS ASKING COMMUNITY TO JOIN THEM FOR OPERATION P.E.T.S

Texarkana, TX – Students in the Texas High School Veterinarian Medical Application & Small Animal Management classes are joining forces and asking the community to join them for Operation P.E.T.S. (People Equipping the Shelter).

Operation P.E.T.S. is a student-led collection drive dedicated to making a PAWS-itive difference in the lives of animals being cared for at the Texarkana Animal Care & Adoption Center.

From November 28 – December 7, students will be collecting needed items such as: dog food/treats, towels/blankets, laundry detergent, Fabuloso Mopping Solution (lavender/continuous clean), cat food, cat litter, cat toys and animal shampoo.

Donations can be dropped at the Texas High School front office – 4001 Summerhill Road.

For more information, contact: Eric Norton, 903.794.3891 ext. 2216.
