D.A.D.S. NEEDED FOR DUNBAR INTERMEDIATE CENTER VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Texarkana, TX – Dunbar Intermediate Center is looking for dads, grandfathers & positive role models for an exciting new volunteer program. – D.A.D.S. (Dads at Dunbar School).

“Many young students have little, if any, positive interaction with adult males on a day-to-day basis while growing up,” commented George Waddles, Principal. “Through the D.A.D.S. volunteer program, students will be paired with a strong, caring male role model that can help them learn and grow into the responsible young people they were meant to be.”

Ideally, volunteers are asked to commit to morning hours (7:20 – 7:45 a.m.) as students arrive in order to help greet the students at the start of their day and during the lunch hour (11:15 a.m. – 12:45 p.m.) to spend additional time with their assigned student. However, if a volunteer is unavailable for those times, the school will work around their schedule.

For those interested in volunteering, a D.A.D.S. Breakfast will be held on Tuesday, December 6 from 9:00 – 10:00 a.m. at the school campus, 2315 West 10th Street. During the breakfast, information and an overview of the program will be given.
