TEXARKANA ISD TEACHER ELECTED TO TCTA COUNCIL

Texarkana, TX – Tonya Dumdei, Special Education teacher at Nash Elementary School, has been elected to the Directors' Council for Texas Classroom Teachers Association (TCTA). She will represent District 8, which covers an 11-county service area, and serve a two-year term beginning June 1.

Dumdei was elected by District 8 Convention Delegates during the TCTA annual convention in February. As a member of the Directors' Council, she will help set policy for the statewide association and assist leaders of TCTA local affiliates.

A member of TCTA since 2000, Dumdei is also active locally in the Texarkana Classroom Teachers Association. She has been in the field of education for fourteen years and with Texarkana Independent School District since 2003. Dumdei holds a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction from Texas A&M University – Texarkana. She is a member of the Learning Disabilities Association of Texas and was named Elementary Teacher of the Year for TISD in 2007-08.

Founded in 1927, Texas Classroom Teachers Association is the leading teacher association in Texas, with 50,000 members statewide. It is an independent, nonunion professional association for educators with no labor union affiliations.
