Texas High Students Win $2,000 in TxDOT PSA Contest

Schools compete for Project Graduation funding

April 13, 2021

Texas High School students show off the $2,000 check they received for winning the TxDOT Traffic Safety Public Service Announcement competition held in March. The students created a video about the hazards of distracted and drunk driving and beat out 12 other schools from the TxDOT Atlanta District which covers a nine-county area of Northeast Texas. The funds will go towards this year's Project Celebration at the school. Pictured are students, Logan Diggs, Assad Malik, Guy Johnson and advisor, Carla Dupree.
