STUDENTS GET ENERGIZED AT TISD'S CIRCUIT CAMP 2009

Texarkana, TX – Fifty students are getting energized this week at Texarkana Independent School District's Circuit Camp 2009. The program is being held July 6 - 10 from 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. at Martha and Josh Morriss Mathematics & Engineering Elementary School.

The annual summer camp is offered to incoming 3rd – 5th grade students and features hands-on lessons in science, technology and fine arts activities that entertain, educate and expand participating student's scientific knowledge. This years' daily themes and projects are:

Monday: Back to the Soil – Making Compost Boxes
Tuesday: Water and Pollution Worries
Wednesday: Making Impressions with Fossils
Thursday: The Sun's Energy
Friday: Water Play Day

The camp is sponsored by TISD Partners In Education Member, International Paper Company.

For more information, contact Brandy Burnett, Coordinator of Instructional Technology at 903.793.7561 ext. 1308.
